

A Message from St. Germain

Greetings,

We understand your yearning to find your way back home to your spiritual family and your desire to complete the process of awakening to your true divine identity as quickly as possible. Yet this is not that simple. After all you have agreed to come to Earth not just for your own individual evolutionary process, but to help a whole planet to ascend to a higher consciousness.

11/11/11 becomes therefore one of many stepping stones in the continued process of awakening and consciousness expansion called Ascension. On and around days like this, you are not only opening yourself up further to your divine essence, but you also become more aware of the dual nature that is part of your human experience. Yes, oneness incorporates all and yet you are also here on Earth to learn about the duality of light and darkness, love and fear, joy and despair.

Ascension takes place when these dual aspects are in a place of balance. Therefore it is necessary for you to look at all of you, not only part of you. Hence 11 is very much a symbol for this process and the mastery thereof.

These times call for strength, courage and the willingness to forgive and love yourself fully, including those aspects you have always deemed as weak or bad. I facing I, you facing yourself, oneness looking at all that is, all of this builds mastery as you look into the mirror of Self accepting all you see. This process also requires a certain level of honesty towards yourself which in return provides you with the clarity necessary to choose what you want to keep within your individuated experience of oneness (I) and what you prefer to release back into all that is.

Notice that every time you look into the mirror of Self you see something else, a more complete version of you. These gradual shifts in consciousness are a continued process going far beyond this life on Earth.

Through the power of love and forgiveness, you begin to raise your lower Self to a place where it can merge with your higher Self, just as you align your body, soul and spirit to raise your individuated Self to merge further and further with your Divine I Am Presence.

Many of you are focused on twin flame relationships at this time. This is only natural because the desire to be in sacred union with your twin flame only emphasizes the longing within your heart to become whole again or shall we say "holy". All we can ask you in answer to your search for this greater love is to, please, calm your mind and heart. The deep love you are yearning to experience in the physical will happen in due time. Have patience, my friends, have patience.

Note, that the basis of the intensity you felt in the last few weeks and month has been two folds. On a physical level it was necessary for your body to stretch and expand in preparation for you to hold a higher frequency of vibration within every cell of your body resulting in your physical body merging further with your light body. Muscle and bone aches as well as nausea because of shifts in your equilibrium were a common denominator. On an emotional and mental level you were provided with opportunities to face your own inner demons and darkness with the new awareness you acquired. Through the acknowledgment of what you feared or judged the most and choosing to embrace it with love instead of rejecting it, you have laid the ground work for awaking to a greater more expanded version of you.

Consider that 11/11/11 would be rather insignificant, if it wasn't for so many of you having chosen to make this an auspicious day. Focusing on one common goal is extremely powerful. Your willingness to anchor more love and light here on Earth as you step through the portal to merge with a greater and more complete version of you has unleashed a tremendous amount of a transformational forces into the collective consciousness bringing about accelerated change and spiritual growth.

We therefor extend our deepest gratitude to those of you who have been and are continuing to be willing to look at the darkness within without turning away from it. You are who we see as the Christed Ones descending down into the lower levels of existence to become the guiding light home for those who are still lost and asleep.

Know that all of your efforts do not go unnoticed. The universal law of cause and effect is very much in effect indeed. Therefore be reminded that the seeds you plant today will give birth to the most beautiful forms of creation. Just continue to nurture the fertile grounds surrounding these seeds and you will be amazed by the outcome.

Love and blessings to all of you. Know that you are not alone and that I am always with you as your loving guide and friend during these times of accelerated transformation.

Respectfully yours,

I am St. Germain.
